CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST KSV/014 • 10 411

Service provision for further development and institutionalising of the Health Information System (HIS) in Kosovo

The Luxembourg Agency for Development Cooperation (Lux-Development) launches a Call for expressions of interest for the acquisition of services for further development and institutionalising of the Health Information System (HIS) in Kosovo on behalf of Project KSV/014 receiving financial support from the Governments of the Republic of Kosovo and the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

Service providers that are invited to express their interest to offer the services mentioned above are any consulting firm legally established, or grouping of such, with proven experience and knowledge in preparing and operationalising health information systems.

Indicatively, service providers will have to demonstrate their technical capacity and experience and proven track record in developing and operationalising similar projects for Health Institutions.

The start of the contract is foreseen for March 2011 for an approximate duration of 25 months. Interested services providers must be available for the entire foreseen period and willing to provide services in Kosovo. The maximum budget available for this contract is estimated at 395 000 EUR (VAT excluded).

Interested services providers are invited to submit sufficient documentation to respond to the selection criteria. The latter are available on request at the postal and e-mail addresses given below. The application dossier including the selection criteria and the application form can be collected at the same addresses.

Expressions of interest, exclusively drawn up in English and using the above mentioned application form, must reach the following address by electronic mail no later than 05 January 2011 at 14:00 (local time).
